New York State Disclosure Form for Buyer and Seller

THIS IS NOT A CONTRACT

New York State law requires real estate licensees who are acting as agents of buyers and sellers of property to advise the potential buyers and sellers with whom they work of the nature of their agency relationship and the rights and obligations it creates. This disclosure will help you to make informed choices about your relationship with the real estate broker and its sales associates.

Throughout the transaction you may receive more than one disclosure form. The law requires each agent assisting in the transaction to present you with this disclosure form. A real estate agent is a person qualified to advise about real estate.

If you need legal, tax or other advice, consult with a professional in that field.

Disclosure Regarding Real Estate Agency Relationships

Seller's Agent

A seller's agent is an agent who is engaged by a seller to represent the seller's interest. The seller's agent does this by securing a buyer for the seller's home at a price and on terms acceptable to the seller. A seller's agent has, without limitation, the following fiduciary duties to the seller: reasonable care, undivided loyalty, confidentiality, full disclosure, obedience and duty to account. A seller's agent does not represent the interests of the buyer. The obligations of a seller's agent are also subject to any specific provisions set forth in an agreement between the agent and the seller. In dealings with the buyer, a seller's agent should (a) exercise reasonable skill and care in performance of the agent's duties; (b) deal honestly, fairly and in good faith; and (c) disclose all facts known to the agent materially affecting the value or desirability of property, except as otherwise provided by law.

Buyer's Agent

A buyer's agent is an agent who is engaged by a buyer to represent the buyer's interest. The buyer's agent does this by negotiating the purchase of a home at a price and on terms acceptable to the buyer. A buyer's agent has, without limitation, the following fiduciary duties to the buyer: reasonable care, undivided loyalty, confidentiality, full disclosure, obedience and duty to account. A buyer's agent does not represent the interest of the seller. The obligations of a buyer's agent are also subject to any specific provisions set forth in an agreement between the agent and the buyer. In dealings with the seller, a buyer's agent should (a) exercise reasonable skill and care in performance of the agent's duties; (b) deal honestly, fairly and in good faith; and (c) disclose all facts known to the agent materially affecting the buyer's ability and/or willingness to perform a contract to acquire seller's property that are not inconsistent with the agent's fiduciary duties to the buyer.

Broker's Agents

As part of your negotiations with a real estate agent, you may authorize your agent to engage other agents whether you are a buyer or seller. As a general rule, those agents owe fiduciary duties to your agent and to you. You are not vicariously liable for their conduct.

Dual Agent

A real estate broker may represent both the buyer and seller if both the buyer and seller give their informed consent in writing. In such a dual agency situation, the agent will not be able to provide the full range of fiduciary duties to the buyer and seller. The obligations of an agent are also subject to any specific provisions set forth in an agreement between the agent, and the buyer and seller. An agent acting as a dual agent must explain carefully to both the buyer and seller that the agent is acting for the other party as well. The agent should also explain the possible effects of dual representation, including that by consenting to the dual agency relationship the buyer and seller are giving up their right to undivided loyalty. A buyer or seller should carefully consider the possible consequences of a dual agency relationship before agreeing to such representation.

Dual Agency with Designated Sales Associates

If the buyer and seller provide their informed consent in writing, the principals or the real estate broker who represents both parties as a dual agent may designate a sales associate to represent the buyer and another sales associate to represent the seller to negotiate the purchase and sale of real estate. A sales associate works under the supervision of the real estate broker. With the informed consent of the buyer and the seller in writing, the designated sales associate for the buyer will function as the buyer's agent representing the interests of the buyer and the designated sales associate for the seller will function as the seller's agent representing the interests of the seller in the negotiations between the buyer and seller. A designated sales associate cannot provide the full range of fiduciary duties to the buyer or seller. The designated sales associate must explain that like the dual agent under whose supervision they function, they cannot provide undivided loyalty. A buyer or seller should carefully consider the possible consequences of a dual agency relationship with designated sales associates before agreeing to such representation.

It is the policy of Keller Williams Syracuse to comply with local, New York State, and Federal fair housing laws. COMMISSION PAYMENT AUTHORIZATION

New York State Real Property Law considers the real estate commission due at the time of the meeting of the minds, which would be at the time a Purchase Offer or Lease is accepted. However, most real estate companies, including Keller Williams Syracuse, defer the actual collection of this earned commission until the closing of the sale or lease execution. In consideration of this deferred commission collection we request your authorization for collection of the commission at the closing or lease execution from the proceeds or a certified check.

To: Attorney, Closing Agent or Lender's Attorney:

I (we) hereby authorize and request that the real estate commission for the sale/lease/exchange of the above property, or any portion thereof outstanding, be disbursed from the proceeds of the sale/lease/exchange at the time of closing or lease execution as billed to Keller Williams Syracuse, which will indicate direct payment to the applicable real estate companies involved. In the event the proceeds are insufficient, the balance shall be paid by a certified check drawn on or official check issued by any bank, credit union (provided such check is drawn on a New York State bank) or savings and loan association having a banking office in the State of New York.

113 Lookout Circle

No HOA fees with a view nestled in an inviting neighborhood. That's what drew me to 113 Lookout Circle after a month of looking around when I first moved to Syracuse. If I weren't leaving NY for work then I'd feel blessed to stay put in my remodeled abode. Over the past couple years in West Colony Pointe I've found wonderful neighbors and made enduring friends. Indeed, after suffering from a 2006 fire the entire community pulled together to see me through tragedy. I did not plan on leaving when I began rebuilding solely because of trusted and dependable friends nearby, so I invested in all too obvious touches not to mention behind the scenes upgrades like insulating floor joists for noise reduction and installing a natural gas line to the main deck for no fuss grilling. Having worked full time across town, I appreciated easy interstate access as well as an inviting parish nearby. The United States military engrained mobility in me long ago, but I can honestly say this is the first time I'm sorry to be relocating.
